

IKEEN Group is the dynamic and flexible structure aimed at achieving targets of our clients.

In IKEEN SD (Software Development) we develop software tools that solve business tasks of our clients. Five-year experience of developing software products for financial groups, large banks, prominent Central Asian companies coupled with the effective “agile software” practice serves well in building software systems of any complexity with the best time management and quality assurance in place.

Specialists from IKEEN ITC (IT Consulting) will assist you in building effective IT structure for your business. Financial system audits, IT structural analysis, development of IT strategy, Information Security policies and instructions, Extraordinary situations IT handbook tuned to the company’s needs give you the necessary control and comfort in your IT environment.

We aim at clients that are focused on getting the maximum effect from the solutions provided by our group using the best of our wide spectrum of services, professional project implementation and usage of high-end techniques.

Clients of our company are the largest representatives of corporate market in Central Asia. Impressive number of successful projects, careful client treatment and unexampled level of integration of our divisions provide us with the unrivalled competitive advantage.

In our work we strictly abide by the following principles:

- Quality
- Professionalism
- Timeliness
- Courtesy
- Reliability
- Integrity

Contact us today and find out what our company can offer you in solving your business tasks. Our professional managers (clients@ikeen.com) will offer you the most effective solutions on any tasks that you might have.

We look forward to working together and would like to thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Pronin Pavel,

Managing Partner